THE ARTIST

Roberto Paolini, (1934-2012) Piedmontese of origin, was a multifaceted artist, capable of communicating art through different languages.

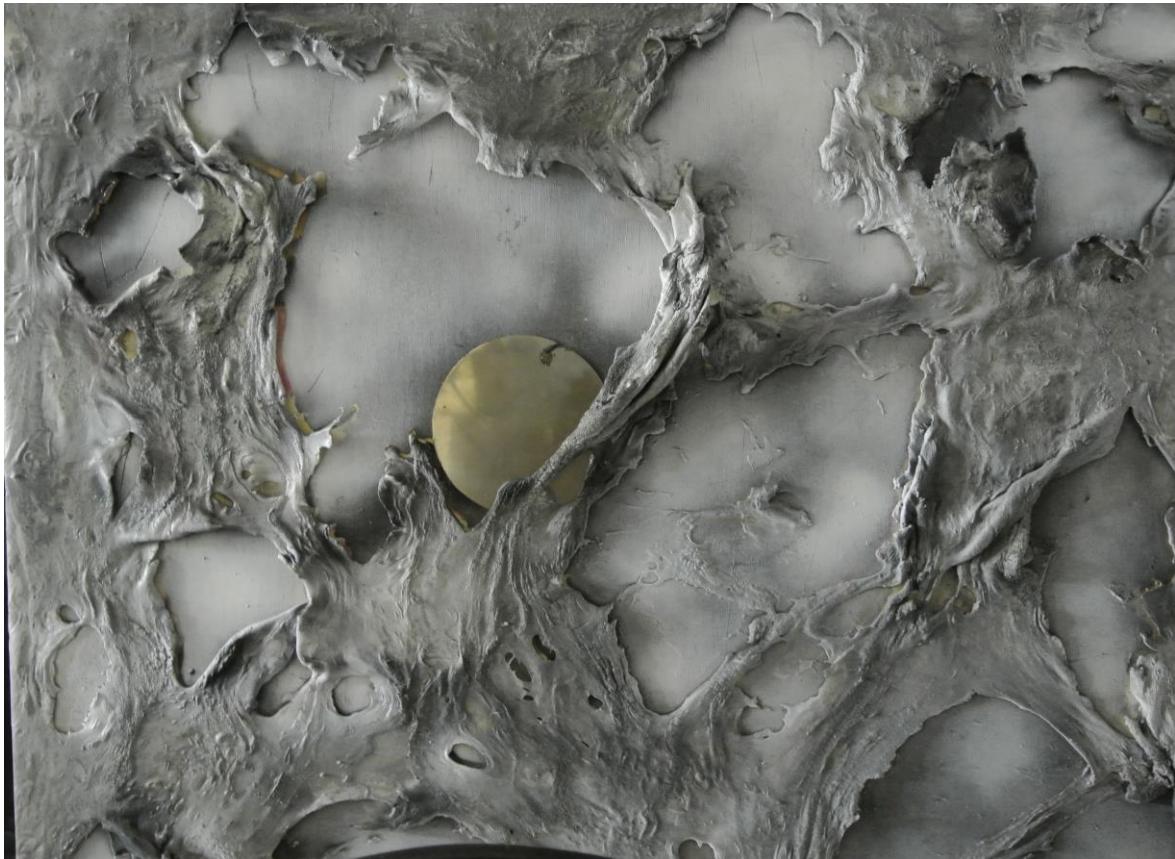

A shy and tormented artist, he has always worked in complete isolation. Only after his disappearance, the heirs and the Archive decided to know his work through the posthumous initiative.

Roberto Paolini was multifaceted and flexible artist, capable of communicating art through many of its results: he was an artist, original and pragmatic designer, chef with daring combinations.

Style and geometry, serial motifs and repeated chromatisms denote the production of Artist. His creations - real artistic artifacts result of his tireless personal research carried out inside his atelier - reveal a rhythm in the almost counterpoint composition.

This vibrant soul had its most pregnant key in stylistic constructivism and rigorous geometry, which always insisted on the primacy of its intuitions instead to contemporary taste.
